

Pond life art competition

East Hampshire District Council is holding a pond life art competition.

To enter, you need to create a picture of any pond life that can be found in Britain.

Your entry must be on one A4 size sheet of paper.

You may use any art medium you prefer.

So be creative and have fun!

Local artist and illustrator, Rachel Hudson, has kindly agreed to judge the competition again.

Winning entries will be displayed in the gallery at Gilbert White's House

Museum and at their Nature Festival.

Winners in each category will receive a family entry pass for a year.

Closing date is Tuesday 20 September 2022

There are four age groups:

4 years and below, 5-7 years, 8-11 years, and 12-15 years.

Please email a scanned copy or a high quality picture of your entry to communitygrants@easthants.gov.uk

Please fill in your information below and include it with your entry (electronically or printed).

Name of parent/guardian:

Name of child:

Age:

Name of school/pre-school:

Teacher and class:

I give permission for EHDC to use my child's name in publicity relating to this competition

☐

We reserve the right to use the artwork, the school name and the age range of your child's entry in future publicity relating to this competition. This publicity may include press releases, news articles, social media posts and other printed material. You may tell us, using the return slip, whether you are happy for us to use your child's name in this publicity.